

BURCH Students Won CPI Award

Apr 11, 2018

Department of Banking and Finance students, Emina Žiber, Tarik Atovic, Ermina Husic and Emina Muhic, won Public Interest Advocacy Center award for the project that they have been preparing in classrooms together with their professors.

The International Burch University continues to build the relationship with CPI and plans to send even more students to internship programs organized by CPI. Congratulations to winners.
