

Burch University Partner Contribution to The 8th Conference On Linguistic And Intercultural Education

Jul 11, 2018

Within the period from 6 to 8 July 2018, International Burch University contributed to the implementation of the conference devoted to linguistics and intercultural education, CLIE – 2018.

Addressing the audience at the opening ceremony of the conference, Assoc. Prof. Senad Becirovic expressed his satisfaction with the organization of such an important academic event and emphasized the significance of such successful long-lasting cooperation between these two academic institutions. Prof. Becirovic also expressed wish that such cooperation be continued to the mutual satisfaction of both institutions, which was also discussed at different meetings. The conference was attended by professors from different parts of the world and the program of the conference was enriched by the presentations of our professors, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Senad Becirovic and Assist. Prof. Dr. Amna Brdarevic ?eljo, who successfully presented the results of two studies in the field of intercultural education and linguistics which were conducted in Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Further information about the conference can be found on this link <http://clie2018.uab.ro/>.

International Burch University | www.ibu.edu.ba