

Traditional Freshman Welcoming Ceremony Held at BURCH

Oct 03, 2018

Today, at the International Burch University in Sarajevo, a formal welcoming ceremony was held for new Burch University students, which officially started the new 2018/2019 academic year.

The event began at 11:00 am with the intonation of the anthem of Bosnia and Herzegovina, the introductory speech of the Rector of the International Burch University, Prof. Dr. Damir Marjanovic, the motivational speech of Tim Fisher as a representative of Stirling Education, and presentation of our most successful students and University basketball club.

Prof. Dr. Damir Marjanovic, Rector of Burch University, welcomed students on behalf of the Burch professor team, emphasizing that they came to the best private university in Bosnia and Herzegovina, and wished them a warm welcome to the Burch Family.

Mr. Tim Fisher did not miss the opportunity to say how important teamwork and collegiality is, especially for the entrepreneurial university such as Burch.

Students were able to greet their older colleagues who were the best among graduates from the previous year and listen to the inspiring and interesting speech of their senior colleague, Amila Dautbašić, a student of foreign languages department.

At the end of the event, the students were sent to their faculties where they were greeted by the Department's mentors and informed about the course process, as well as students' rights and obligations.

International Burch University | www.ibu.edu.ba